

'Bribe' cops' get bail

TWO policemen accused of taking a R550 bribe were granted bail at the Ventersdorp Magistrate's Court, the Hawks in the North West said yesterday.

Captain Tlangelani Rikhotso said police constables Baatile John Murambiwa, 39, and Thebeethata Reginald Mandlane, 44, appeared in court yesterday. "The pair, who are stationed at Ventersdorp police station, were arrested following investigations into a complaint alleging that on January 9, they stopped and searched a delivery van with furniture.

"The officers then allegedly threatened the driver with arrest and demanded a R550 bribe.

"The money was subsequently deposited by the owner into one of the suspects' account." They were each granted bail of R500.

The case was postponed to April 25. - African News Agency (ANA)

06/04/18 Pretoria News for Hawks Neutral

Cops up for R550 'bribe'

Two policemen accused of taking a R550 bribe were granted bail by the Ventersdorp Magistrate's Court, the Hawks in North West said yesterday.

Captain Tlangelani Rikhotso said police constables Baatile John Murambiwa, 39, and Thebeethata Reginald Mandlane, 44, both stationed in Ventersdorp, were arrested "following investigations into a complaint alleging that on January 9, 2018, they stopped and searched a delivery van with furniture".

"Some of the items were apparently not listed on the inventory," Rikhotso said.

"The officers allegedly threatened the driver with arrest and demanded a R550 bribe.

"The money was subsequently deposited by the owner into one of the suspects' account," Rikhotso said.

They were each granted bail of R500.

The case was postponed to April 25. - ANA

The Citizen - Nwato - 1910 - Neutral