People are happy brothel is going

By STEPHENS MOLOBI
THIS brothel made headlines when women and girls were rescued by cops from evil human traffickers.

And now another victory has residents of Piensaarsdorp in Klerksdorp, North West, rejoicing.

The North Gauteng High Court has ordered it to be demolished.

The brothel is situated at No 5 Viljoen Street.

The Hawks raided the building on 16 December 2016.

They rescued 26 women and girls from various parts of the country.

Then another raid saw another 34 women being rescued from the same building last year.

During the second raid, two Nigerians were arrested for human trafficking and drugs and money were seized.

Major-General Linda Mbana, the Hawks provincial head, welcomed the news of the court order.

She told Daily Sun that preparations for the demolition of the building were under way.

"After a lot of hard work by the Hawks, the assets forfeiture unit and the NPA, the forfeiture order has finally come to fruition," she said.

Mbana said that the demolition of the property will give the community of Piensaarsdorp hope.
