

Polos targeted by thieves

ELFAS TORERAI

POLICE have warned vehicle owners, particularly VW Polos in the Potchefstroom area, to be vigilant after a number of thefts have been reported.

"While theft of motor vehicle cases are reported in Potchefstroom and its vicinity, investigations have shown that the Bult area including in and around North West University campus is mostly affected.

"A further probe showed VW Polos are being targeted and are stolen mostly during the night," provincial police spokesperson Brig Sabata Mkgwabone said.

Mkgwabone said motorists had to exercise caution in parking areas and report suspicious persons to the police on 10111 or 018 299 7457.
