- (b) Submissions requesting for remunerated overtime duty must encompass/contain the following factors:
- b.1 the circumstances, which necessitated the performance of overtime duty;
 - b.2 the steps which were taken to prevent the performance of overtime duty, for example redistribution of duties among available staff, reallocation of work, temporary utilization of staff in other divisions, etc.;
 - b.3 the task in respect of which the remunerated overtime duty is requested;

- b.4 the number of employees who will be required to perform overtime duty and set performance targets and/or aims as criteria.
- b.5 the estimated duration of overtime duty;
- b.6 the estimated expenditure for overtime

8. Compensation of the different Authorized Overtime Rates

- (a) The Department shall compensate prior authorized completed overtime work, by paying the employee concerned the relevant rate as determined by the Department of Public Service Administration (DPSA) capped at the minimum notch of salary level 8 for compliant claims as per conditions stipulated in paragraph 7.2. Annexure B must be used when claiming authorised overtime.
- (b) In the event there was no prior approval to perform Overtime, employees who perform duty over and above their official hours of duty shall be granted paid time-off equivalent to the time worked.

9. Overtime Classifications and compensation rates applicable to employees who qualify:

- a) The remuneration awarded in respect of normal overtime duty, as prescribed per PSCBC Resolution 3/99 as well as the Determination on working time in the Public Service 2008, is calculated by multiplying the total number of hours of overtime duty performed with one and half of an employee's normal hourly remuneration.
- b) The remuneration awarded in respect of overtime duty performed on a Sunday or a Public Holiday, is calculated by multiplying the total number of hours of overtime duty performed with two of an employee's normal hourly remuneration.
- c) The basis for the calculation of overtime worked shall be the actual salary notch of the employee, provided that it shall not be higher than a basic salary of salary level 8 per annum. This amount will be increased by the percentage of the annual general salary adjustment.
- d) The rate of payment for an employee in the public service who, ordinarily works on a Sunday shall be 1,5 × actual salary notch of the employee, provided that it shall not be higher than a basic salary of salary level 8 annum. This amount will be increased by the percentage of the annual general salary adjustment.

10. REST, MEAL AND TRAVELLING

If the Head of Department authorizes overtime, she or he shall ensure that there are:

- a) fair and acceptable limits on the extent of overtime.
- b) periods for rest and meals, and that
- c) where possible employees travel to and from work at a time when public transport is available
- d) consider providing transport assistance to employees (full time employees, contractual employees) who are required to perform remunerated overtime duty in cases where there is no public transport available and there are safety risks to employees.

11. CONTROL OF REMUNERATIVE OVERTIME

(a) Requests for remunerative overtime can only be approved if the necessary funds are available. To ensure a continuous review of projects, operations and functions in respect of overtime remuneration, approval granted in this regard will only be valid within a financial year, without the option of overtime authorizations overlapping between financial years.

(b) It is the responsibility of the programme manager to ensure that:

- b.1 There is adequate supervision and control during the performance of remunerative overtime;
- b.2 the authorization for overtime should be reviewed when the time frame or limit of overtime is reached in order to avoid the amount or time allocated being exceeded
- b.3 The remunerative overtime duty is not authorized for less busy periods, wherein the workload does not warrant such;
- b.4 The records of all overtime duty are kept;
- b.5 An attendance register is kept; and
- b.6 Employees are not subjected to overtime duty to such an extent that the quantity and quality of the work (productivity) performed during normal working hours is adversely affected.

12. GENERAL MEASURES

12.1 When the necessity for remunerative overtime duty arises, approval should always be firstly sought from the Head of Department. The availability of funds must at all times be taken into consideration.

12.2 Applications have to be made in advance and approval granted in this regard is only valid within a financial year.

12.3 Approved overtime cannot be carried over into a new period. A new application is required in such instances.

12.4 Claims for remunerated overtime duty will be rejected if the period of overtime duty claimed falls outside the start and end date.

12.5 Claims for remunerated overtime will be rejected if the amount that has been authorised is exceeded.

12.6 In order to improve control, the Head of Section where overtime is to be performed must determine beforehand the number of hours overtime duty to be performed each day and set performance targets and/or aims as criteria.

13. POLICY AMMENDMENT

This policy shall be amended as and when a need arise to ensure that is aligned to prevailing legislation and market conditions.

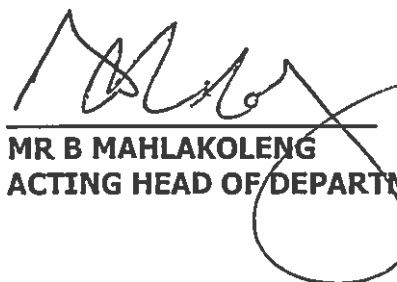

14. RELATED POLICIES

The application of the policy should be in conjunction with the Basic Conditions of Employment Act (BCEA), the current Public Service Regulations and the prevailing Collective agreements. Provision for overtime compensation will only be made in the Instance where there is authorization in writing by an Executing Authority or delegated person.

15. COMMENCEMENT OF THE POLICY

This policy shall be implemented by the Department with effect from the date of approval and signature by the HOD.
