NWest provincial government to host US Ambassador and US Consul General

Mahikeng: The North West Provincial Government will next week Monday, 03 October, host a delegation from the US Embassy that will be on a courtesy visit to the province to introduce the new US Ambassador to South Africa, His Excellency Ruben Brigety II. The US Ambassador will be joined by the US Consul General, Mr Vincent Spera.

As part of their three-day visit, the US delegation will be joined by the MEC for Health, Madoda Sambatha and MEC for Social Development, Boitumelo Moiloa in visiting some of the projects that the province is implementing with the support of the US Consul General's office, before engaging with other MECs on possible strategic areas of cooperation including education, economic development, and tourism.

The US Consul General's last visit to the province was in January this year, and the North West will be the first province in the country to be visited by the new US Ambassador to South Africa.
