North West Province commemorates provincial Public Service Month

Mahikeng: Premier of the North West Province Kaobitsa Bushy Maape will on Monday, 26 September 2022 lead the Provincial Integrated Public Service Month commemoration at Greater Taung Local Municipality, under the theme “Batho Pele Revitalisation-Walking the talk”.

Initiated in 2005, Public Service Month is an integrated service delivery improvement mechanism and an essential part of government’s strategy to revitalise Batho Pele with a specific focus on honouring public servants who serve the nation across three spheres of government. The initiative further seeks to minimise the gap between government and communities by enhancing communication, showcasing of government services and empowering communities on processes to access such services.

The 2022 Public Service Month is focusing on improving public health and wellness of public servants, revitalise the commitment and dedication to values and principles of what means to serve communities. Furthermore, the objective is to expose Accounting Officers and Senior Managers to the coalface of service delivery.

As part of the day’s programme, Premier Maape will make unannounced visits to offices of government departments before going to a service delivery blitz at Moretele Thusong Service Centre near Dryharts, where government departments will be showcasing and providing services to the residents. Premier Maape will deliver a keynote address and engage members of the media at Moretele village.

Members of the media are invited to cover the day's proceedings, the details of which are as follows:
