MEC Kegakilwe on housing delivery

The North West Province will be turned into a construction site with over 9500 housing units set to be built across the four districts during 2019/2020.

The MEC for Cooperative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs, MothibediKegakilwe said during the budget vote, said an amount of R1 985 148billion has been set aside for human settlement development and title deeds restoration.

“We have put aside an amount of five hundred and ten million and forty six thousands (R510 046m to build 2383 units and to service 1346 sites in Bojanala Platinum district, R488 765m to build 2360 units and 2360 serviced sites inDr Kenneth Kaunda district. We will spend R411 115m in Dr Ruth SegomotsiMompoti districtto build 1973 units and 2660 serviced sites. R471 933m will be spent on 2979 units and 830 inNgakaModiriMolema district.

“Our call is to implement integrated and sustainable human settlements through accelerating housing opportunities and ensure security of tenure to our people in this province. We will be doing this within the context of spatial integration as prioritized by President Cyril Ramaphosa”, said MEC Kegakilwe.
