NW to assist in the burial of the 109 year old woman

Messages of condolences from government and other sectors of society continue to pour at the family of Gogo Mahlalela of Rankelenyane Village outside Rustenburg, who died on Monday.

Gogo Mahlalela dies while government is in the process of building a house for her, following media reports about the hazardous conditions she was living in.

The North West MEC for Human Settlements Public Safety and Liaison Nono Maloyi has committed to assist the family greatly with funeral arrangement.
