Residents of Maquassi hills to get over 600 housing units

In an effort to accelerate service delivery in the Province, the Department of Local Government and Human Settlements will spend over R33 million which will yield a total of 622 housing units in Maquassi local municipality for the 2018/2019 financial year.

These units will be spread between Leeudoringstand Extension 8, Home 2000, Wolmaranstad Extension 15 and Lebaleng Extension 4 and is expected to be completed by July 2019. Work has already started has already started and is expected to have been completed in July 2019.

Commenting on the project, MEC for Local Government and Human Settlements, Galaletsang Gaolaolwe said "the community of Wolmaranstad has long been waiting for housing developments in the area which used to be an informal settlement. They didn't even have ablution services s which was a serious challenge".

The MEC for Department of Local Government and Human Settlements, Galaletsang Gaolalwe had announced earlier in the year that the department will create 15 519 housing opportunities at a cost of R1 926 644 000 in 2018/19 financial year to address housing backlog in the province.
