ACTING PREMIER MALOYI ISSUES A RECOGNITION CERTIFICATE TO THE ACTING KGOSI OF BAHURUTSHE BA GA MOILOA.

Lehurutshe - The Acting Premier of the North West, Nono Maloyi has issued a recognition certificate to Mosiameemang Moilola as the Acting Kgosi of Bahurutshe ba ga Moilola, who will assume his duties with immediate effect.

The issuance of the certificate follows lengthy consultations with the Royal Family. This is aimed at bringing about stability in the community and to allow Bahurutshe ba ga Moilola to participate in the establishment of a Traditional Council in line with the Traditional and Khoi-San Leadership Act 3 of 2019.

As part of his responsibilities, Acting Kgosi Mosiameemang Moilola will participate in the activities of Ngaka Modiri Molema Local House of Traditional and Khoisan Leaders. He will also represent the community at Ramotshere Moilola Local Municipality to deal with various challenges of service delivery and in particular provision of water at Dinokana and surrounding villages.

This also includes participation and engagements between the provincial government and traditional leaders in finding lasting solutions to challenges of socio-economic concern confronting rural and traditional communities.

Subsequent to the issuance of the certificate, Acting Premier Maloyi has invoked Section 59 of the Traditional and Khoisan Leadership, to establish an investigative team to look into challenges of succession into the Bogosi ba Bahurutshe ba ga Moilola. This process will give the Royal Family an opportunity to identify the substantive Kgosi to lead Bahurutshe ba ga Moiloa.
