Tourism Department to formally receive hotel school building.

The North West Department of Tourism will officially accept a building donated by AngloGold Ashanti which will be converted to be a Hotel School for the Dr. Kenneth Kaunda District.

This donation is part of Anglo Gold Ashanti's social and labour plan. It also forms part of the department's policy commitment of building hotel schools in all four districts of the province as stipulated in the 2015/16 budget vote speech. MEC for the Department of Tourism and other senior members of the provincial government are expected to be part of the receiving ceremony.

Members of the media are invited to this handover which will prevail as follows:
