TOURISM MEC MAKES EDUCATION FASHIONABLE

Congratulations are in order for Tourism MEC Desbo Mohono who has recently acquired a Masters Degree in Public Leadership and Governance from the University of Witwatersrand. This adds on to her other qualifications which includes a Diploma in Education and an Honours in Education Management.

MEC Mohono described this milestone as challenging but significant. “Even though the conditions were not always favourable I am happy to have completed my Masters and wish to inspire many others to do the same”. “I am glad that all the hard work I have put in has paid off and appreciate the support I have received from my family and close friends, including industry professionals who have assisted me during this journey”, Mohono said.

Mohono says this qualification will go a long way in contributing immensely to Tourism as a critical driver of the economy. “My thesis focuses on leadership in the hospitality industry. I found that there is a great need for more leaders with unique skills and knowledge in this ever dynamic industry”, added Mohono.

Acting Departmental Spokesperson, Albert Pule congratulated MEC Mohono on her achievement. He said that MEC Mohono is an example that if you focus your attention on a goal, no barrier or challenge formed against you shall prosper.

“Working and studying at the same time is not easy. We can all learn a thing or two from MEC Mohono and make education fashionable. The department has got a training programmes and we encourage those who are interested in furthering their studies to take advantage of the programmes to develop skills that would increase productivity in the workplace”, said Pule.
