Department to host Ngaka Modiri Molema District Tourism Engagement Sessions

The North West Department of Tourism will host the third of the four planned District Makgotla. The aim of these consultative sessions is to seek means to foster integrated tourism planning and development across all spheres of Government.

These also be used as a platform for enhancing the department's stakeholder relations by establishing strong partnership between Government and Private sector in managing and developing tourism in the Province. Tourism stakeholders will also be expected to make inputs into the broader Provincial Tourism Strategy

Date : 06 February 2015
