PRESS RELEASE

17 AUGUST 2005

NCOP DELEGATION VISITS EPWP PROJECTS IN BOPHIRIMA

Members of Parliament from the National Council of Provinces (NCOP) today visited R4 million Expanded Public Works Programme Projects located in Taung in the Bophirima Region.

Led by its Deputy Chairperson, the Honourable Mr. Tsietsi Setona-MP, the multiparty NCOP delegation visited the grass cutting and bush clearing projects on the Hartswater-Vryburg Road and the Taung-Reivilo Road. The Delegation also visited the Taung Central Business District Paving Project, Boinelo Home Based Care Project and households for afflicted and affected families.

Boinelo Home Base Care which services 74 beneficiaries spread over 4 villages is one of the 7 Non- Government Organisations that are funded by government and Impala Mines.

The projects are being implemented in partnership with the Greater Taung Local Municipality, the Departments of Transport and Roads and the Department of Health. Thus far 328 job opportunities for locals have been created.

The Deputy Chairperson of the NCOP expressed satisfaction with the coordination of the Projects by the Department of Public Works.
