OFFICE OF THE MEC

PRESS RELEASE

3 AUGUST 2005

SECOND YEAR IN A ROW UNQUALIFIED AUDIT REPORT FOR PUBLIC WORKS NORTH WEST

The North West Department of Public Works has received yet another unqualified audit report for the 2004/2005 financial year from the Auditor General in the North West.

In congratulating the management of the Department for the achievement of the unqualified audit report, received for the second year in succession, MEC for Public Works, Honourable Mr. Howard Yawa said, "Building on the success of the previous financial year, the achievement reflects a commitment to service excellence and compliance with financial prescripts, treasury regulations and policy directives. The commitment and dedication of the leadership collective of the department should be commended."

MEC Yawa further said, " The achievement is in line with the department's strategic objectives to among others, implement the Public Financial Management Act, monitor expenditure patterns, improve debt management and revenue collection."
