PUBLIC WORKS SOUTHERN REGION CELEBRATE WOMEN'S DAY

The Southern Region of the North West Department of Public Works today celebrated Women's Day under the theme " Women sowing seeds of growth and harvesting a winning spirit" at the Public Works Regional Office in Potchefstroom.

Various speakers addressed employees on women's struggle for gender equality, sexual harassment in the workplace, achievements of government and the department towards creating a representative public service.

The Keynote speaker, Inspector Adele Myburgh of the South African Police Service focused her address on options available to women to deal with domestic violence.

The Regional Manager, Ms Portia Monnapula-Mazabane said, "The event was an eye opener to most employees and afforded women an opportunity to reflect on their achievements and share experiences on how to deal with domestic violence and abuse "
